Do hybrid gel batteries hold a good charge?

I'm very pleased with my purchase of 2 100ah hybrid gel batteries. They hold their charge well and seem to like being supported by my Renogy 200 watt suitcase solar panel. I can use either my 2000 or 3000 watt inverters depending on my need when boondocking. They are a bit heavy however, but easy enough to transport. by Alan

Are gel cell batteries any good?

Great batteries Arrived early and fully charged. These Gel cell batteries are far superior than the marine batteries I've used in the past for my solar system. I run four 100 watt solar panels although only two is needed for two batteries runs all of my lights and fans for my house. Never discharges the batteries to run 300 watts all day.
